

SMOKE OVER OKLAHOMA

THE RAILROAD PHOTOGRAPHS OF PRESTON GEORGE

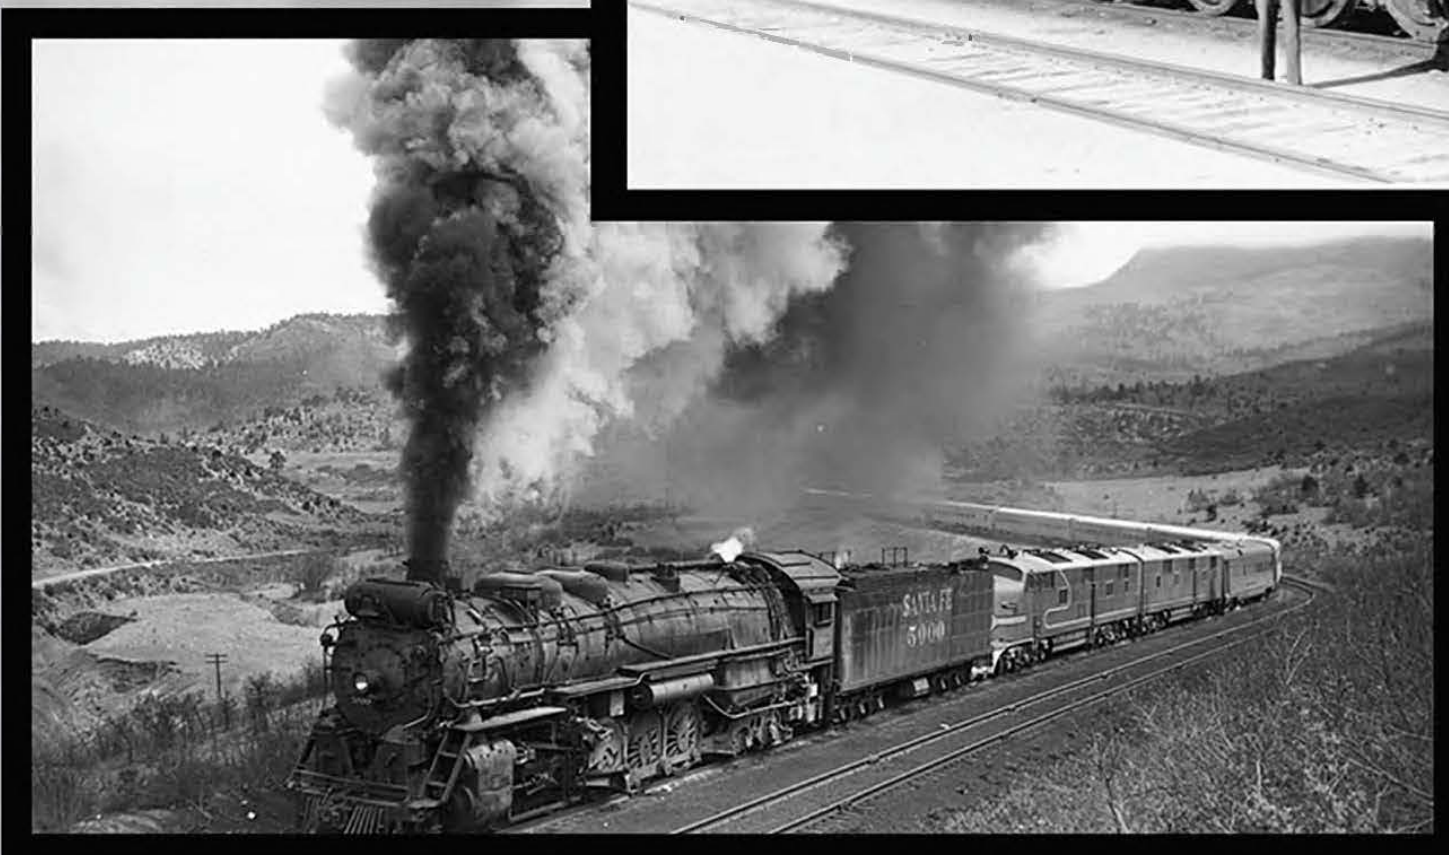

This collection of images represents a small portion of the railroad photographs taken by Preston George through the 1930s and 1940s. George photographed trains in his spare time while working as a civil engineer in Colorado and Oklahoma.

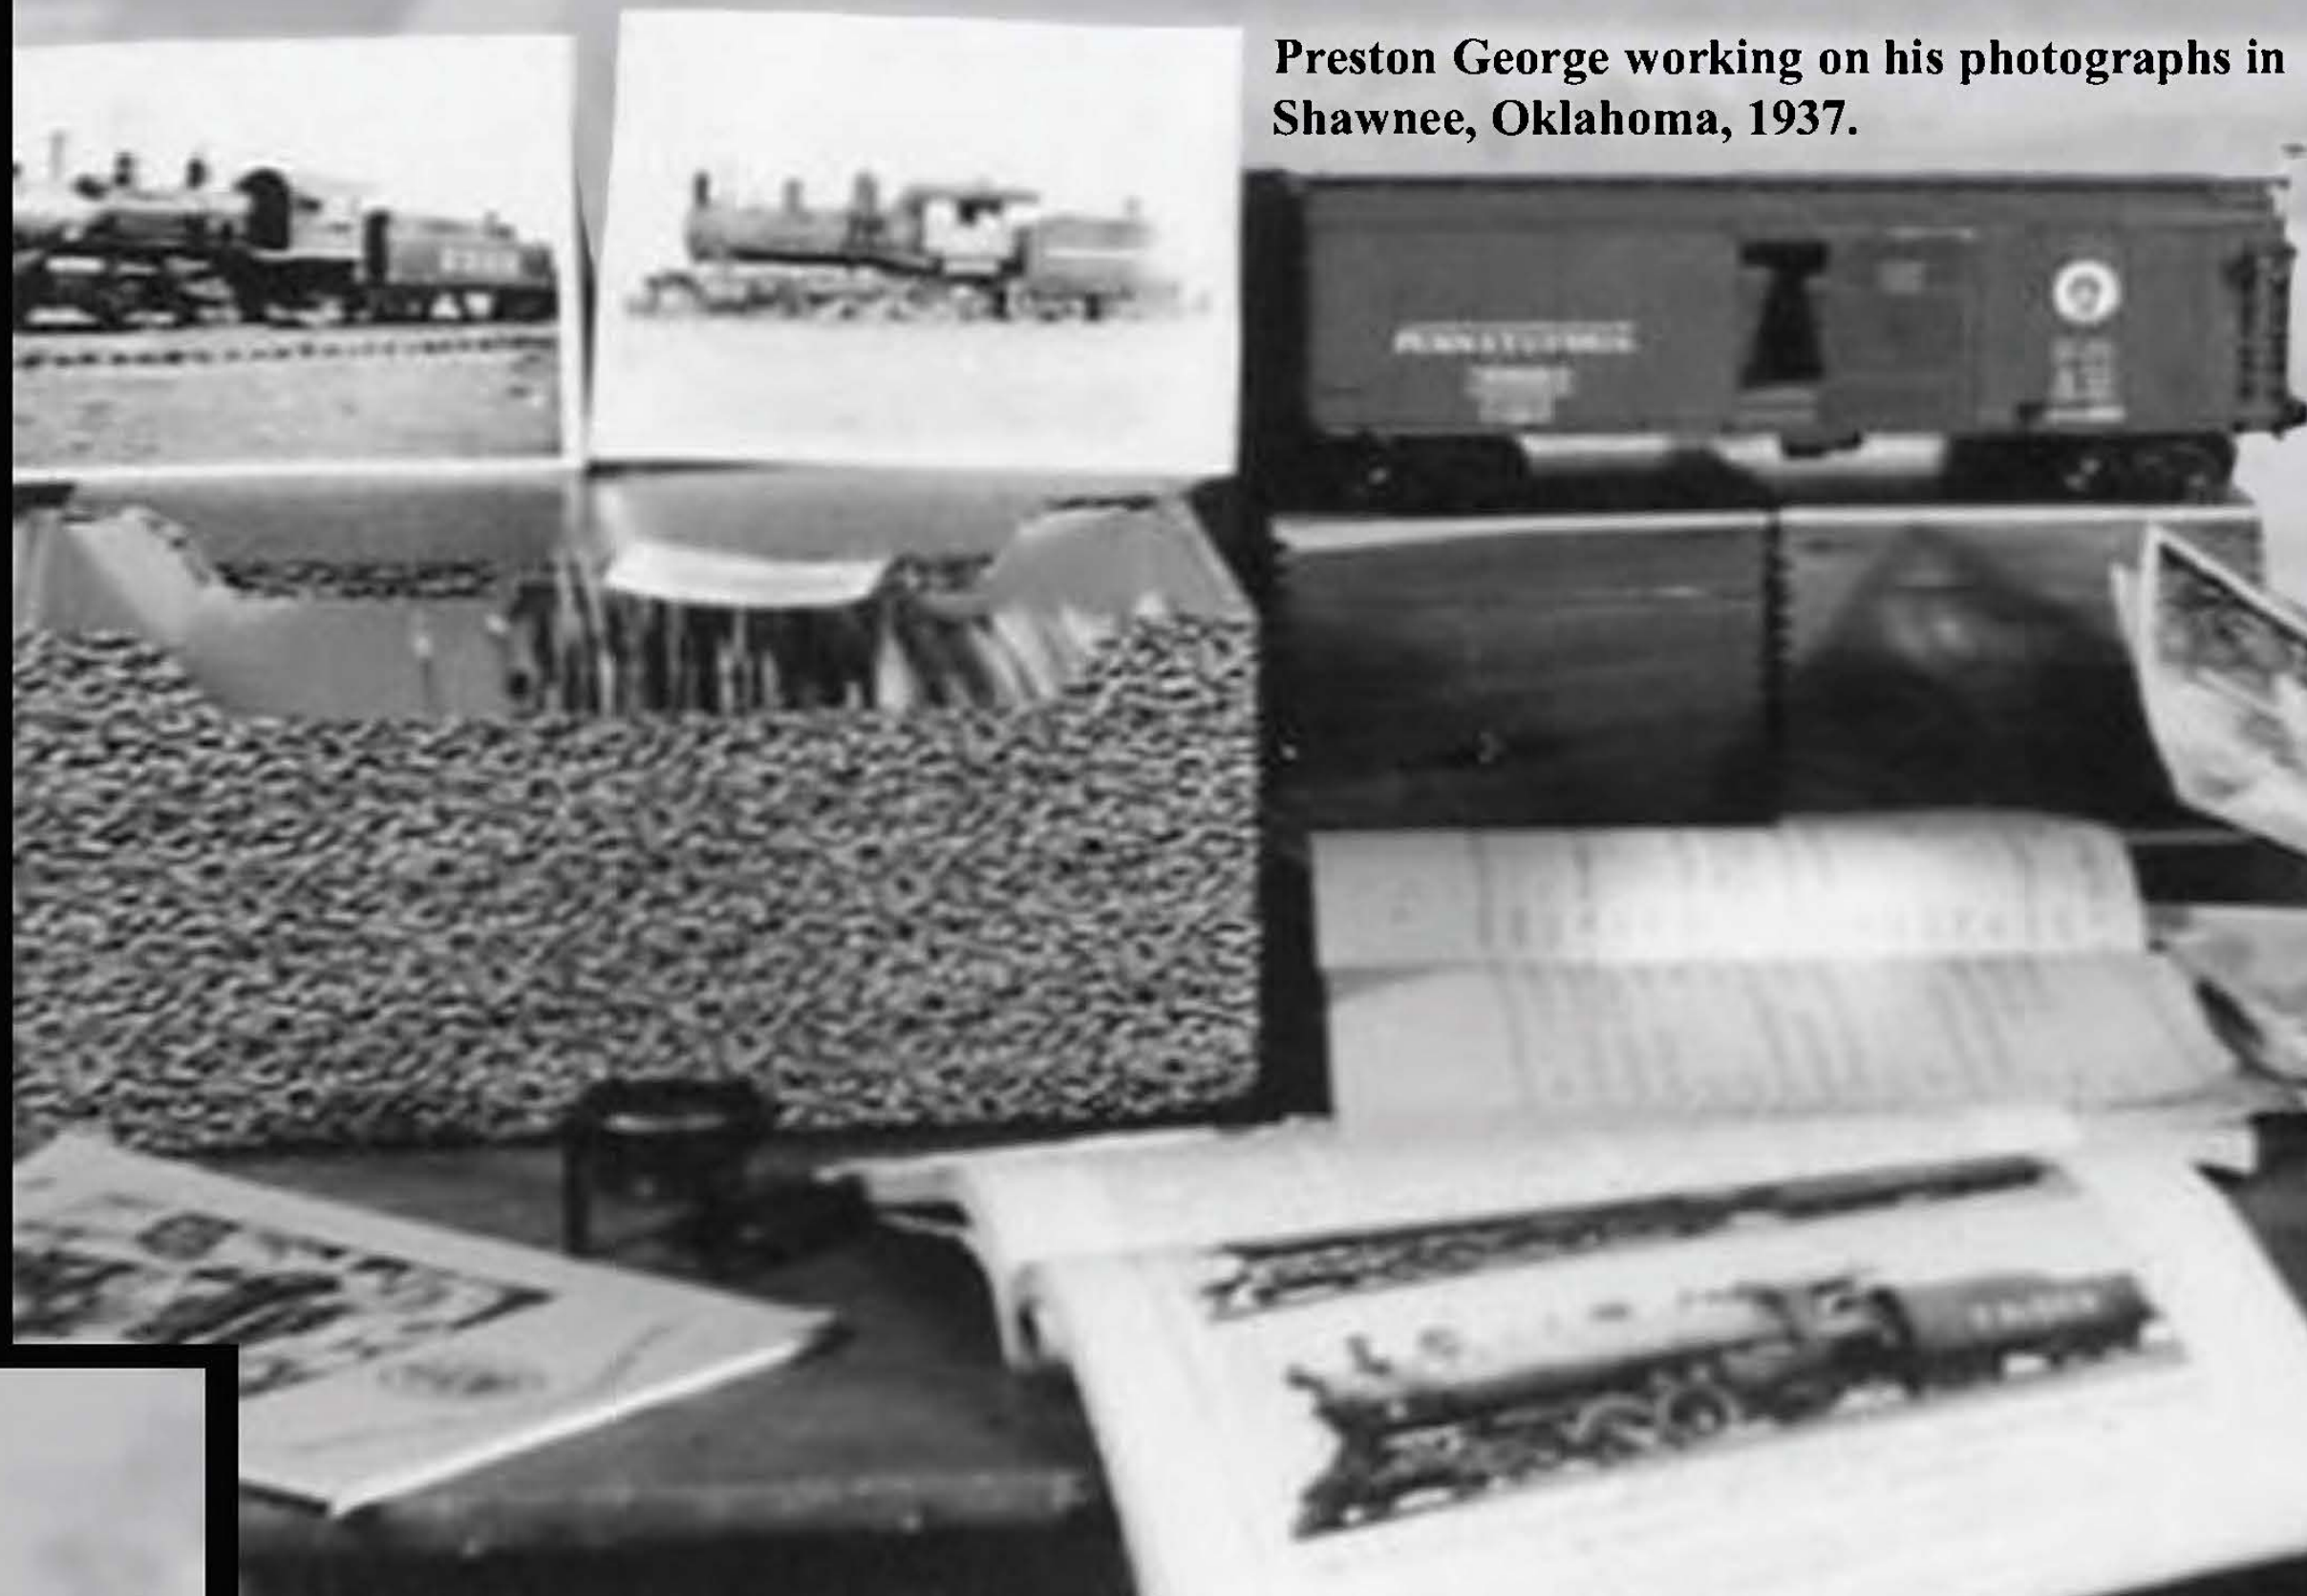

Switching crew for the Santa Fe Railroad in Shawnee, Oklahoma, 1937.

Preston George standing in front of the Frisco Railroad "Firefly," 1939. Photo taken by Margaret George.

Santa Fe Railroad, 1940s.

Preston George working on his photographs in Shawnee, Oklahoma, 1937.

